The Assembly Committee appointed to investigate the sweat-shop system in New York met in the Aldermanic cham-New York met in the Aldermanic chamber at the City Hall promptly at 11 o'clock this morning. There were a score or more of witnesses present to testify.

Henry Meyer, Secretary of the Liberty Cigar Manufacturing Co., of 305-306 East Seventy-first street, was called. He said the Board of Health had condemned the factory buildings last February. The firm, he said, leased part of the build-

$1.27 a week by working eighteen hours a day, finishing knee pants for Mr. Newman. Bhe had been engaged in this kind of drudgery for four years. Anstola Tompale, of 98 Thompson street, is another employee of Newman. She also works at finishing knee pants, but it came out that the so-called finishing consists of making almost the entire garment. She rents five rooms at $10 a month for herself, husband and two daughters. Two of the rooms she rents out and in the other one the family of four cook, eat, sleep and work.

Twenty-six Cents a Day.

She gets eight cents a dozen, and with he assistance of her little daughter and wo other women she manages to make wenty-six cents a day for her share of twenty-six cents a day for her shall the earnings.

Lawyer Mayer called the Committee's attention to the testimony of Mr. Newman last week. Newman made it appear that his employees earned from $6 to $6 a week.

"The fact is," said Mr. Mayer, "that when over $1.25 is earned there are two or more engaged on the job, and when the pass-books show $5 or $6 earned it represents five or six persons."

George Schenck, manufacturer of paper boxes at $3 and $5 Sixth avenue, said that he employed about 100 hands, seventy of whom were females ranging in age from fourteen to forty-live years. Most of them were between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one, He said he never employed a girl without a certificate from the parents stating the age to be fourteen or over. The average to be fourteen or over. The average salary, he said, was about $6 a week.

"A little girl," said he, "Is started at $2.50 a week. After three months she gets an advance of $5 cents, and so on until she has learned the trade, when she is advanced to piece work. Then she can make from $5 to $7 or $5, according to her skill."

Behenck tried to conceal the fact that he sent out piece work to be done in tenement houses where no price was stipulated, and where the employee did not know what she was earning until paid off. He generally gave what he liked to, and the employee had no recourse. She was obliged to accept what he chose to pay.

In such cases, he finally confessed, the work was of new design, and he could not fix a price until he found out what time was occupied in the making.

CINCINNATI, May 18.-There was anic in the Criminal Court at Covingon, Ky., to-day. The case of Emma Slaughter, for $25,000 damages from Dr. Slaughter, for $25,000 damages from Dr. sarvis McCollum, for seduction, was eing tried. While Emma was testifying, her father, Henry Slaughter, was seen drawing a large dirk. The Sheriff and jailer grabbed him before he could reach Dr. McCollum.

Afterwards Henry Slaughter was on he stand, and the attorney for the defensed asked the witness whether he had ever been in the penitentiary Without answering Slaughter ripped ut another dirk and plunged for the attorney. He was again held back, but several persons were hurt in the panic which followed, none seriously, however. It was necessary to adjourn court in order to get rid of the crowd. In the afternoon none but attorneys and witnesses was admitted.

The bookmakers attempted to go outside the gates after the first race. There were too many of them who asked for this privilege, however, and Pinkerton put an end to that game.

The weather was much milder here today, and the attendance numbered about 2000—a very poor showing for Saturday. The track was in much better shape than people believed it to be possible after the heavy rains of the morning it was drying out fast.

An unknown man tripped and fell down the steps of the grand stand, just after the second race, cutting his eye and cheek badly. The man was in delicate health and was unconscous for nearly half an hour. It was feared that he would die, but he recovered nicely during the afternoon.

Place in Full Blast in Broad-But Officer Goff Locked the Champion Pugilist Up.

Now George Will Have to Tell Why He Drank Too Much.

George Dixon, the champion featherweight pugilist of the world, will not visit his Boston home to-night. He has a pressing engagement for to-morrow orning in the Yorkville Police Court He will there try and explain away the According to the police, a bold attempt charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct which has been entered against was made to operate a pool-room in the Tenderloin Precinct yesterday afternoon. him in the Twenty-third Sub-Precinct

The pair entered the waiting-room o the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and purchased tickets for Hoston.

The train did not leave until 1 o'clock and Dixon and his friend put in the time visiting neighboring liquor stores, returning after each drink.

The train was at the platform all the time and many passengers were in the cars. Dixon got on and off so often, and used such language, that the other passengers unanimously protested against his being allowed to ride.

Accordingly, a committee was appointed to request Policeman Peter W. Goff, who was on duty in the waiting-room, to have Dixon removed or to at least compel him to keep quiet.

The officer tried the latter course, but he had scarcely spoken to Dixon when the latter used a number of vile epithets, and practically invited the bluecoat to fight.

There is where he made his mistake. Goff is not by any means a giant, but he is utrong enough to swallow two men like the feather-weight champion. He promptly proceeded to gather in the colored fighter, whereupon the latter resisted vigorously. and Dixon and his friend put in the colored fighter, whereupon the latter re-sisted vigorously.

Goff carried the fighter bodily towards the sub-station. Dixon's friend at that point interfered and wanted to effect a rescue. He was forced back, and after the fighter had been lodged in the station he discreetly disap-peared.

Policeman Goff was savage at the way his uniform was treated.

WHEAT'S SUDDEN JUMP.

Went Up a Cent in 15 Minutes and Two Cents in an Hour.

There was a scene of wild excitement on the "curb" at the Produce Exchange to-day. The regular wheat market closes Saturdays at 12 o'clock, and for an hour afterwards, or until Chicago closes, traders stand around and trade in an unofficial way.

Testally the "curb" is a tame affair. To-day it was a bedlam of noises. Outsiders had been heavy sellers all the morning, causing quifte a decline in a morning, causing quifte a decline in the loss of about 1-k. This left the feeling rather weak, and when cold-weather stories struck the market it was unprepared.

EXPOSITION PARK, PITTSBURG, Pa., May 18.-The New York and Pittsburg teams were favored with the most perfect weather imaginable for the closing game of the first series here this afternoon and an enormous crowd was present. Long before the gates were opened a howling crowd of home rooters were on hand, and by the time the game was begun nearly 6,000 people had swarmed through the turnstiles.

Both teams were more than anxious to place to-day's game to their credit and presented their fongest nines. As matters now sta 1 each has won game, and the feeling was intense. Connie Mack trotted out his ster twirier, Hart, to dish up a variety of shoots and curves for the Gotham out fit. Hart is one of the season's "fir and thus far he has proven himself an enigma to opposing batters, "Phenoms," the Giants. Although Meekin's arm was far from the best of shape, Manager Davis sent him into the box. German was held in readiness to relieve him.

The batting order was as ollows: Pittsburg. Donovan, r.f. Stenzel, c.f. New York. Bannon, R.
Tiernan, rf.
Davis, 3b.
Doyle, 1b.
Van Haltren, cf.
Stafford, 2b. Bierbauer, 2b. Clingman, 3b. Cross, 4s. Kinslow, c. Hart, p.

uner, ss. It compire-Mr. Betts.

First Inning. Tommy Bannon was cheered as be stepped up. The second ball Hart shot in Tommy lifted high back of third base, where Cross gathered it in. Tiernan rapped a grass cutter to Clingman, and he died at the first corner. Davis met with better success, his liner going for a clean single. George made a dasi for second, and on Kinslow's high throw he reached third. Jack Doyle was ple at first. No runs.

Donovan bunted, and "Meek" threw Went Up a Cent in 15 Minutes and wildly to Doyle, and Donovan kept on Van Haltren and Stafford each rocketted up a little fly to the infield and were out. Farrell poked one to centre, which Stenzel nailed. No runs.

Umpire Betts then got in another of his many "mistakes." Clingman bunted in front of the plate and was hit by the ball. Betts refused to call him out or to allow a strike. Clingman then filed to Thernan. Cross banged a safe one along the ground to left and purloined second. Kinstow raised one to Tiernan, and Hart's infantile effort resulted in his being retired at first. No runs.

Third Inning.

Meekin flied to Stenzel, and Clingman wrapped his digits about Fuller's high foul. Bannon made the seventh Glant to put one into the air, and was retired. No runs.

After striking at the epillet twice Donovan placed a safe one past second. Stenzel waited for four bad ones. The best Beckley could do was a weak one to Meekin. Smith flied to Tiernan, Donovan reaching third. Fuller got his hands on Bierbauer's sky-scraper. No runs.
